

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jordan & Jordan Is Nominated as Finalist for Best Supporting Services Provider

New York, May 25, 2010 – Jordan & Jordan is one of six firms nominated for the Inside Market Data 2010 Award in the category of Best Supporting Services Provider. The winners in all categories will be announced on Wednesday, May 26th at the Sheraton Hotel and Towers in New York.

The annual competition awards recognize industry excellence within market data, reference data and enterprise data management. Jordan & Jordan has received enough votes from the market data community to enter into the final round of competition, along with Corvil, Greenline Financial Technologies, ITRS, The Roberts Group and West Highland Associates. The complete list of 2010 Finalists in all categories can be found on the Incisive Media Website.

The awards will immediately follow the 2010 North American Financial Information Summit also hosted by Inside Market Data and Inside Reference Data. Tom Jordan, President and Chief Executive Officer of Jordan & Jordan, will moderate the panel “Capacity – Cranking Down the Volume” at the conference. The judging panel for the awards is comprised of representatives from Inside Market Data and Inside Reference Data along with selected individuals from the market data industry.

Contact

Sara Brady, Jordan & Jordan, brady@jandj.com, +1 212 655 2951

About Jordan & Jordan

Jordan & Jordan (J&J) is a market data, management consulting, and information technology services firm specializing in the financial services and securities industry. J&J brings seasoned industry professionals with practical experience in the financial services industry to work with our clients to meet the technology needs of their end users. J&J's market data practice has assisted firms by managing multiple global market data risk assessment and compliance initiatives, coordinating multiple expense management initiatives, providing outsourcing services and interim staffing, and performing market data audits. Through the management consulting and technology practices, J&J has also assisted industry firms in providing solutions by evaluating business alternatives, developing practical strategies, selecting or developing suitable technology solutions, assisting in order routing execution technology, providing trade analytics and creating action plans and managing project implementation. Additionally, J&J manages the Financial Information Forum, FIX Protocol Limited and RIXML. Jordan & Jordan has offices in New York, London and Chicago. For additional information please visit: <http://www.jandj.com>.